The Harbor a Forest of Bunting from the Lower Bay Far Up the Huds The Night Festivities Grand Beyond Description

YORK, Oct. 11.—[By the Associated Press.] Yesterday the people of New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City turned out and lined up along Fifth avenue to witness the parade of school niversary. Today they lined up on each side of that greater, grander thorough-fare, the Hudson River, to witness an imposing naval parade. The city was buried in bunting, and the fashion extended to the sight-seers themselves, almost every one displaying the national colors on the lappel or elsewhere as a personal adornment. All parts of these cities surrounding New York harbor, except those bordering on the route of the parade, were almost deserted. It is estimated that not less than 1,000,000 people, massed on both shores from the people, massed on both shores from the Battery to Grant's Tomb, witnessed the stately procession as it moved grandly up the broad waters of the majestic Hudson River.

The start was made at 12:30 o'clock from Gravesend Bay in three columns 300 yards apart. The foreign war vessels occupied the center with the United States was less on either side as an extensive selection. States vessels on either side as an escort. As the line entered the Narrows a salute of twenty-one guns was fired from either shore.

The order of the parade was as follows: Patrolling flotilla, manned by naval militia of New York to clear the way; naval division, consisting of the U.S.S. Miantonomah; United States

One small low-lying craft, that easily One small low-lying craft, that easily cluded the efforts of the officers to keep eluded the efforts of the officers to keep foreign elements out of the parade, danced like a flash of light upon the green waters of the harbor. It darted in and out at will among the staid old war-ships, passing them as though they were at anchor. Even the bare-legged urchin, dangling out on the stringpiece, knew this fairy-like craft. As he imparted his knowledge to his companions, so did others in different grades of life point out the little yacht as the Vamose, William R. Hearst's wonderful water thoroughbred. The hilly shorefront of Bay Ridge was thronged with people who viewed the procession from that coign of vantage. Club houses and hotels along the shore were gay with decorations and black with people.

That Riverside Park was, one of the That Riverside Park was, one of the best places from which to view the parade was appreciated by fully 100,000 people, many of whom took up positions on the grassy slopes in the early morning, long before the many vessels participating started from the upper bay. From the bluffs an uninterrupted view of the Hudson could be obtained. Underneath the grassy slopes, below on the railroad tracks, thousands of peo-ple stood and watched and waited, the railroad tracks, thousands of people stood and watched and watted, while others sought seats on cars that gave them a more commanding view of the scene. When the vanguard of the parade finally appeared enthusiasm reached the highest pitch. Almost every third person carried a field glass, and these were leveled incessantly at the ships as they glided up the stream amid the booming of cannon and veciferous applause of the crowds.

The most distinguished party of the naval parade was on the steamboat Howard Carrol, the craft used by the Naval Committee. Vice - President Morton, Secretary Tracy and Secretary of the Treasury Foster were aboard.

SALUTED WITH PNEUMATIC GUNS.
For the first time in history a pneumatic gun was fired as a salute today.
This was when the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius, following the signal from the Philadelphia to salute Forts Wadsworth and Hamilton, responded with her pneu-matic guns, and surprised the whole feet—not only the visiting warships, but the American men-of war as well. The salutes from the Vesuvius were asrapid and sure in their action as the secondary batteries of the cruisers, and belched forth a roar which made the rapid-fire guns sound like pistols. A casualty is reported attendant or the naval parade. THE MICHIGAN CASE

Its Peculiar Electoral Law Before the Federal Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11 .- By the Asso ciated Press.] Arguments in the case to test the constitutionality of the Michigan law providing for the choice of Presidential electors by Congress districts, which came up on appeal from the Michigan Supreme Court, were begun in the United States Supreme Court today. The political aspect of the case is very pronounced, as it is admitted that if the law is sustained it will give part of Michigan's electoral vote to the Democrats. Atty. Gen.
Miller appeared as one of the counsel on the Republican side.

In his argument against the law, Henry M. Duffield relied principally upon the contention that the Miner Act is in violation of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution. Act is in violation of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution. Messrs. Champlin and Kirschner, in arguing for the law, raised as a first point the question of jurisdiction, declaring that the form in which the case came up was not reviewable in the Federal court, but only in a State court. Atty.-Gen. Miller said

Atty.-Gen. Miller said:

It is one of the most hopeful signs of the times that courts are arousing to the fact that if the rights of the people are to be preserved they must be preserved by the observance and enforcement of the laws, and the law must take by the wrists political bosses who, assuming that the questions are purely political, are committing grand larceny with the rights' of the people. In saying this I am not raising mitting grand larceny with the rights of the people. In saying this I am not raising it as a partisan. I am perfectly aware that the people are robbed by an unjust apportenment by the party to which I belong as well as by the party to which I am opposed, and it is high time that the courts should say to these worthies: "It is just as much larceny to steal a political right as it is to steal private property." as it is to steal private property.

LOSING ITS LAND.

The Southern Pacific Forfeits Thousands of Acres.

Negligence and Defective Filings Costing the Company Much of Its Holdings in California-A Land

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11-[By the Associated Press.] An important ruling was made by the General Land Office yesterday. Through either the negligence or incompetency of the Southern Pacific's Washington land attorneys thousands of acres of land in California, held as indemnity selections by the Southern Pacific, is forfeited by the latter by reason of defective filings, and its entries will be cancelled unless the railroad can succeed in straightening out its land affairs, which are said to be in a very bad fix. Forty thousand acres of the company's indemnity lands in California were cancelled yesterday, 8200 being in the Visalia district and 30,000 in the Independence district. The General Land Office today sent a letter to Henry Beard, Washington land attorney for the California and Oregon Railway Company, in which Commis-sioner Stone said:

sainway Company, it which Commissioner Stone said:

In reply to your verbal request to be informed as to what lists, if any, of your pending indemnity selections are defective or invalid under the department requirements, I have to advise you that a hasty examination of those now pending shows that all, with two or three exceptions, are defective for want of proper specification of losses, while some are absolutely invalid for want of any specification whatever. The amount embraced in these lists aggregates 500,000 acres are now pending on appeal by the company from rejection by the local officers, which are in the same condition. Hence before these lists can be favorably acted upon it will be necessary for the company to make them conform to departmental requirements as heretofobe stated. Should, however, the company neglect or refuse to comply with said demand and fail or refuse to make its lists of selections conform to the requirements of the rules of the department, such of them as are defective tuse to make its lists of selections conform to the requirements of the rules of the department, such of them as are defective when reached in the order of business will be held for cancellation and such as are invalid will be cancelled.

A similar letter was sent to Beard. as attorney for the Southern Pacific and Oregon and California Railway Companies. In the cases of the two last named roads, 1,500,000 acres of last named roads, 1,500,000 acres of land filings are defective or invalid and will be cancelled unless the companies can make them conform to the require-Glasgow, Oct. 11.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] While workmen were digging in the garden of a residence in the most fashionable quarter of the city they discovered a corpse, dis-membered and disemboweled. It proved to be the body of a woman beween 30 and 40 years of age. The family occupying the house was absent and a young gardener named McEwen and a young gardener named McEwen was left in charge. The police immediately sought him, but he was not to be found. The body was slashed and ripped in a manner which rivalled the norrible work "Jack the Ripper" performed on the bodies of the wretched women who met their fate at his hands. The only information so, far gleaned.

The only information so far gleaned is to the effect that McEwen was in the women in the house of the family. After during the absence of the family. After the discovery the garden was thoroughly searched, and pieces of the body were found in four different holes in the garden, and it is thought furthe in the garden, and it is thought further search will reveal the missing parts. Inquest on the Body of Edgar Alden-Fatal Accident at Newhall.

Coroner Weldon held an inquest yes terday morning on the body of James Edgar Alden, who fell dead in a saloon Monday evening. Deceased was a hard drinker, and the post-mortem held by Police Surgeon Bryant showed that he died from heart disease brought on by alcoholism. He was 55 years of age, a native of Boston, Mass., and single. He had $850 in bank and owns a fine ranch in Antelope Valley. His body will be sent to Boston for burial.

Last night Coroner Weldon received Last night Coroner Weldon received a dispatch from Newhall saying that on Monday a tree fell on a wood-chopper named John Johnson, and that he died from the effects of his injuries last evening. An inquest will be held this

KILLED BY CLEVELAND.

Law Prohibiting the Employment of Convict Labor on Government Contracts.

Columbus (O.,) Oct. 4.—Gen. G. P. M. COLUMBUS (O.,) Oct. 4.—Gen. G. P. M. Turner, the eloquent Republican orator of Tennessee, is in the city tonight to confer with Chairman Dick, of the State Committee. He will probably make several speeches in Ohio during the campaign. In conversation with the Commercial Gazette correspondent the General called attention to one of the official set of Grover Cleveland while he official acts of Grover Cleveland while he was President, which seems to have thus far escaped the attention of both camfar escaped the attention of both campaign speakers and writers. Living in Tennessee, Gen. Turder is naturally greatly interested in the convict labor question, and has watched closely official acts relating to it. Said he: "There is one reason, if no other, why no workingman can afford to vote for Cleveland. Congress passed a bill providing that no convict labor should be employed under any circumstances on any Government contract. It was introduced in the House by Mr. Neidringhaus of Missouri, passed there without material opposition and went through haus of Missouri, passed there without material opposition and went through the Senate without protest or amendment. But when it reached the White House for the President's signature, necessary to make it an operative law, Cleveland calmly vetoed it, This official act seems thus far to have escaped observation," continued the General, "but it is not the less true for that, and it should be exploded for the benefit of it should be exploded for the benefit of the workingmen this campaign.

Watterson—"Beshrew me, Grover! Thou dost not, methinks, Upon the platform stand with both thy Thou seem'st the free-trade plank to fear. Go to!

People Don't Like Ocean Racers. [Baltimore Sun.]

The fast trips of the ocean steamers across the Atlantic are working a curious reaction. People used to take the voyage long ago for the tonic effects of the sea air, the long rest it gave them and the general benefit of the complete change of life. All this is done away with on the "six day-boats." The trip is so short that the passengers harely with on the "six day-boats." The trip is so short that the passengers barely get used to the wave motion or cured of its first upheavings when the dock is sighted on the other side. Then the great crowd on board, the rush for meals and continued excitement use up many of the other beneficial advantages. Long-trip voyages have therefore become fashionable.

Self-protection

A curious illustration was given a few months ago in one of the oldest towns in Massachusetts, showing how a man's vote will be governed by his business. A new school building, involving considerable outlay, was being erected. erable outlay, was being erected. The taxpayers were called upon for an additional sum, in order that the building might be completed with the best sanitary equipment to be had. An exhaustive effort was made to carry through the project unanimously, but in spite of all a dissenting voice was recorded. Inquiry after the meeting elicited the fact that the negative vote was from the undertaker. the undertaker.

THE EYES OF THE WORLD

Upon Chicago, October 20, 21 and 22-

On the 20th, 21st and 22d of October, at the World's Fair grounds in Chicago, will take place the imposing dedication exercises which are to usher in the quadro-centennial anniversary of the discovery of America by immortal Christopher Columbus

The Los Angeles Times has fixed upon this historic and glorious date for the issuance of a special illustrated Colum-BIAN NUMBER. It will consist of twenty four pages, besides a four-page illustrated supplement, showing the California building, the other World's Fair buildings, and Los Angeles local views.

The city and county of Los Angeles and the other southern counties will be adequately described, their resources and advantages truly depicted.

Brilliant and graphic reports from the center of interest, Chicago, will be published. There will be an elaborate mail description of the buildings and prounds and of the imposing preparations for 1893; also'a luminous special telegraphic report of the opening dedicatory exercises on the 20th inst. A second edition will contain also the impressive proceedings, on the 21st, of what will doubtless prove one of the most notable gatherings in the history of America. Large editions of the COLUMBIAN NUMBER will be printed. Applications for space, for descriptive articles with illustrations, and for copies in quan titles continue to be made at the count ing-room and by mail.

For a partial mention of special fea tures see large advertisement.

Is there anything op pressive and tyrannical in that? Is i ot what we are endeavoring to guar antee all over the North, as well as, throughout the South?

Why, then, are the Southern people so thin-skinned about the announcement of this broad principle, which must be the very corner-stone of a popular gov ernment? Why do they "almost shud when contemplating a picture evolved from this broad declaration of American rights? "The wicked flee when no man pur sueth." "A guilty conscience needs no accuser." The people of the South know that, in the maintenance of their doctrine of "a white man's govern ment," they have resorted to fraud. force and intimidation, until they have made these the rules of their elections They know that, while counting their negro population along with the whites as citizens for whom to claim represen tation in the electoral college and in Congress, they have denied the prerogatives of citizens to the negroes. Thus they have practically nullified the Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments to Constitution; they have committed a great outrage on the race to whom they deny the franchise, and they have perpetrated a fraud upon the other States of the Union by holding a larger representation in national legislation than they are entitled to by their own rule of action. Now, the negro in the South is either a citizen or he is not a citizen. If he is enough of a citizen to be counted as such in the census and to be included when the apportionment for Congressional repreentation is made, he is enough of citizen to deposit a free and untrammeled vote for Congressman or any other representative. If the people of the South are so insistent on "a white man's government," and are strong enough to nullify a part of the Constitution to secure it, let them then accept white man's representation. have practiced their rank fraud upon the other States of this Nation about as long as it is endurable. If a bill were introduced in Congress reciting that, whereas, the several State governments of the South are avowedly "white men's governments," and that the enfranchising of the colored race is practically a dead letter and a failure, and that, therefore, the representation of said States in the electoral college and in Congress shall be reduced to the basis of the white population in such States-what a how ould be raised! This to-do over the Force Bill would be nothing in comparison to it. Now, it does not comport with the dignity and integrity of the United States to make any such declaration. The Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments are in the Constitution, and they are there to stay. What is more, they are there to be enforced. The colored tion of these people has fairly rue riot race must and shall be enfranchiseli over the Force Bill bogie, we quote the in the South as well as in the North. The severest criticism we have following from the Jacksonville (Fla.) to make against the Republican party Pimes-Union of recent date, under the is that it has been too dilatory, too A political cartoon has appeared in ome of the Southern newspapers, ineasy-going about this matter of such vital importance. It has allowed nulliluding the Times-Union, representing cluding the Times-Union, representing a white man approaching a polling-place and offering his ballot and being prevented from depositing it by two black deputy marshals armed with revolver and shotgun. It makes one almost shudder to look at the picture, and it causes one to realize more forcibly than words can do the horrors contemplated by the Force Bill. It represents fication to rear its ugly head and seces sion to assert itself again all over the South. If the South was not sufficiently conquered to induce it to willingly observe the laws of the Nation then it ought to be made to do that which every other section is compelled to do-bow to the mandates of law. plated by the Force Bill. It represents When the Southern States show themoccurrence in the South should selves not sufficiently enlightened to mon occurrence in the South should this infamous measure ever be enacted. Thousands of armed deputy marshals would be employed, and, as a matter of course, they would be Republicans, and a large proportion of them would be negroes, who, being accountable to Re-publican officials only might spikes. stand on the broad platform of equal and exact justice to every citizen, then they once more show themselves deserving of the fate of reducthe condition of a provpublican officials only, might subject white men to the most outrageous inince, with no State representation in Congress. We would serve them as white men to the most outrageous indightities with impunity.

This picture helps one to grasp the designs against the South of the political desperadoes who ruled the popular branch of the Fifty-first Congress. Their purpose was to practically disfranchise the whites of the South, and to so manipulate the perror vice that the electronold President Jackson threatened to serve South Carolina when it passed the ordinance of nullification. If we could not get fair representation in any other way, we would march an army down there and declare martial law. The shortcoming of the Republican inte the negro vote that the electoral vote of the cotton-growing States would be solidly Republican. They felt that a desperate extremity, the otherwise inevitable retirement of the Republican party from power, warranted a desperate remedy. The remedy proposed amounted to nothing less than the wresting from the people of the South party has been that it has not offered to do any such thing. It has contented itself with proposing measures altogether too mild to meet the emergency It has quailed before the cry of the bloody-shirt." The real issue can never be met in this way, and we believe that the longer it is postponed the The Force Bill provided for the use of $9,000,000 on a single election, and it was plainly the intent that this should be used mainly to maintain thousands of negro deputy marshals, who should serve the purposes of the Republicans during campaigns, at the polls, and as witnesses in Federal courts.

The means by which the leading purpose of the protectionist party would be worse the reckoning will be. The situation in the South is not becoming better, but worse. Here are a number of States which practically stand in defi ance of the laws of the Union. The longer their insolence is borne the more longer their insolence is borne the more aggressive and unbearable they will become. They will fan the smouldering embers of the rebellion until they again precipitate a civil war.

An fitteen minutes after Jones wuz setting the street of the results of the rebellion of the street of the results of The means by which the leading purpose of the protectionist party would be accomplished are so revolting to the mind of a Southerner that he instinctively recoils from tracing out the disastrous effects which such a political system would have on business in the South and the existing social conditions. We may rest assured that if the negroes should find themselves suddenly elevated politically above the whites want to take the cash of the rebellion until they again precipitate a civil war. The Republican party has as yet proposed no force bill which will meet the situation. But the Republican party cannot dodge this issue with Misparty cannot dodge this issue with Missouri compromises and Dred Scott deeisions much longer. It ought to give the people of the South something stead of the bogie man of straw which they have set up for themselves.

By the way, it is openly asserted in mocratic quarters that Mr. Hervey Lindley, a Republican candidate for Congress, has given out in the camp of the enemy, "on the quiet," that he is "opposed to the Force Bill, and always was." If the charge be true, the object of this auti-Republican declaration is obvious: it is to curry favor with Democrats and get their votes, while concealing his disloyal sentiments from the party that made the mistake of putting him in nomination for Congress. The manner in which the affair became the property of the police is a good story in itself and is about as folows: Late Sunday night a bluecoat, who as dozing gently while leaning against pepper tree in the swell portion of the city, was aroused by the cry of a woman in trouble, followed by the patter of bare feet on the sidewalk about a block

He lost no more time than is necessary under police rule No. 346, which says that no policeman shall fail to walk with all dignity when danger is lurking in the vicinity, in locating the house oc-cupied by the woman in distress.

Under a second story bedroom window the brave "cop" found the above-men-tioned dude's coat and hat and his tooth-plck shoes, and it was easy to see from the confused state of the clothing that they parted company with the second bedroom only a few minutes

The policeman did all in his power to induce the inmates of the house to come forth and explain matters, but they were as quiet as the proverbial mouse, and after ten minutes the bluecoat gave an and wended his way to the central station with the dude's "hand-medowns'' under his arm.

At the station the pockets of dudy's at the station the pockets of dudy's coat and vest were ransacked by the able clerks, who have a bad habit of poking their hands in the pockets of suspects and others every chance they get. FIRST WARD REPUBLICANS. The Harrison and Reid Club of the First Ward held a rally in Banquet Hall last evening which for enthusism outranked any meeting so far held in Los Angeles city. A. E. Meigs as chairman and Sherman Smith as secretary officiated as the officers of the evening, and after the routine club business had been transacted, introduced James McLachlan, who for an hour and more expounded true Republican doctrines, paying particular attention to the Los Angeles city. A. true Republican doctrines, paying particular attention to the question of tariff. The points made were appreciated and roundly applauded. He was followed by the following county candidates in the order named: John C. Cline, candidate for Sheriff, in a manly and straightforward manner, stated that he, if elected, proposed to conduct his office in the proposed to conduct his office in the best interest of the people who had nominated and elected him, and that nominated and elected him, and that he had made no pledges as to deputies. His reception guarantees the fact that the Republicans of the First Ward will roll up a handsome majority for him and the whole county ticket.

THE COURTS.

Verdict for the Plaintiff in the Wilson Damage Suit.

Awarded the Full Amount Claimed With Interest and Costs.

Another Heavy Damage Suit Com menced Against a Railroad.

Chinaman on Trial for Assault With Deadly Weapon A Young Woman Adjuged Insane—General Court Notes.

Judge Clark and a jury were occupied yesterday, for the fourth day, in the trial of the damage suit instituted by Mrs. M. Wilson against the Southern California Railway Company for the loss of certain furniture, which was destroyed by fire after it had been shipped here from Chicago and stored in defendant's freight depot in this city in One witness was called in rebuttal, and four in sur-rebuttal during the morning, and this closed the testimony. The matter was then argued by Messrs Guthrie, Brunson and Wells and finally submitted to the jury at 4:40 o'clock; that body returned into court about an hour later with a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $5222.66 and costs. ANOTHER BIG DAMAGE SUIT.

Another big damage suit against a railroad company came up for trial in Department Four yesterday afternoor. the plaintiff being Mrs. Arcadia B. de Baker, and the defendant corporation, the Riverside, Santa Ana and Los Angeles Railway Company, which has since been incorporated with others ander the title of the Southern California Railway Company.

ander the title of the Southern Calilornia Railway Company.

The plaintiff alleges in her complaint that the defendant corporation constructed a levee along the banks of the Los Angeles River with a total disregard for its currents, and caused it to diverge from its natural channel, so that after a heavy rain on January 26, 1890, the waters of said river flowed on to plaintiff's land, cut a deep channel through it, carried away six miles of fence and destroyed 900 acres of her property. She asks, therefore, that the nuisance thus created be removed, and that she recover damages in the sum of nuisance thus created be removed, and that she recover damages in the sum of $155,705.26.

The defendant claims that it was authorized by an ordinance to construct said levee for the protection of its lines along the banks of the river, and that It has no knowledge that the construc-tion of said levee was a nuisance to plaintiff, and she never notified it that plaintiff, and she never notified it that such was the case.

The work of selecting a jury occupied part of the afternoon session, Messrs. Wells, Monroe and Lee appearing for the plaintiff and Messrs. Brunson and Hatch for the defendant; but the panel was not completed and the matter went over until this morning.

CHINESE ASSAULT CASE. The trial of the case of Ah Loy, the Chinese charged with having assaulted Wong Ha with a deadly weapon on August 7 last, was resumed before Judge Smith and a jury in Department One yesterday morning. At the conclusion of the cross-examination of the witness Charlie Quong, Attorney Stephens moved the Court to allow the jury to view the premises, and, the District Atorney consenting thereto, it was orview the premises, and, the District At-torney consenting thereto, it was or-dered that the jurors be conducted by Deputy Sheriff Cruz to the doorway of the Wong Choo building, on Chippie alley, off Los Angeles street, where the offense was alleged to have been com-mitted. The jurors returned at 11 o'clock and the case was then proceeded with, the following witnesses being with, the following witnesses being called and examined in rebuttal: H. A. called and examined in rebuttal: H. A. McLane, L. R. Harris and Se Coy. This closed the testimony, and after argument the matter was submitted to the jury at 3:15 o'clock. An hour later that body returned into court with a verdict of conviction, and the defendant was thereupon ordered to appear for sentence on Thursday morning.

The case of Gustav Kleman vs. Antonio Depace and Antonto Benicio, an action to quiet title to and enjoining action to quiet title to and enjoining defendants from trespassing on plaintiff's homestead in section 12, township 1 south, range 18 west, came up for hearing before Judge Wade in Department Three yesterday. The delendant Benicio not being present, his council asked for a continuance, but as the plaintiff was ready and anxious to proceed, the Court ordered that his tesproceed, the Court ordered that his tes-timony be taken and the matter then continued until Benicio appeared. From the pleadings it was ascer-tained that both Kleman and Benicio claim to have located homesteads on the same piece of unsurveyed Govern-ment land, and that each seeks to oust the other therefrom. Kleman alleges ment land, and that each seeks to oust the other therefrom. Kleman alleges that he has resided upon the land for over three years past, and that he has planted fruit trees and sown barley and wheat, which Benicio's cattle and stock have damaged to the extent of $200 already. Benicio, on the other hand, avers that he sowed the barley and other grain himself, and that Kleman has no right whatever to the treet in has no right whatever to the tract in question. The other defendant, De-pace, files a disclaimer, and the case will in all probability be dismissed as to

ADJUDGED INSANE.

Miss T. Murphy, a native of Canada, 32 years of age, residing at No. 850 South Hill street, in this city, was taken before Judge McKinley yesterday morning for examination as to her mental condition, and upon the recom-mendation of Drs. Cochran and Davidmendation of Drs. Cochran and Davidson, the commissioners appointed for that purpose, she was duly adjudged insane and committed to the State asylum at Agnews. Since the death of her mother, which occurred about four months ago, Miss Murphy has been subject to spells of melancholia and hysteria, and delusions of hearing, and has abilitied other. exhibited other traits of approaching mania, which have of late increased to an alarming degree.

Court Notes.
In the United States District Court yesterday morning the trial of the case against J. H. Murphy of Fresno Flats, charged with having uttered and passed nine counterfeit dollars, resulted in a mistrial, the jury being unable to agree upon a verdict. The matter was reset mistrial, the jury being unable to agree upon a verdict. The matter was reset for November 3 next.

Judge Ross, upon motion of the United States Attorney, yesterday morning vacated his order setting the Earl case for trial on the 21st inst., and ordered that the matter be set for trial upon a date to be agreed upon by counsel hereafter.

Carl A. Sundstrom, a Swede, was duly admitted to citizenship of the United States by Judge Smith yesterday afternoon, upon producing the necessary proofs of residence here, and taking the requisite oaths of renunciation and allegiance, and Judge Van Dyke performed a like service for Jacob Vetter, a German. Judge Van Dyke heard the case of Jean Leonis vs. John B. Amestoy et al., Jean Leonis vs. John B. Amestoy et al., yesterday morning, and after ordering a decree in favor of the plaintiff therein as prayed for, appointed County Clerk Ward as Commissioner to execute the deed in controversy on behalf of the minor defendants.

Upon motion of the plaintiff's counsel, Judge Van Dyke yesterday morning ordered that the case of E. W. Spence yes O. E. Brady, an action to recover ordered that the case of E. W. Spence vs. O. E. Brady, an action to recover money due for material furnished for the construction of the new Courthouse, be dismissed, the matter having been amicably settled out of court.

Judge Shaw yesterday tried the case of Jerry Illich vs. A. Comandich, an action to recover possession of seventeen acres of land at La Ballona, leased to defendant by plainiff, and for damage to defendant by plaintiff, and for damages for the unlawful detention thereof, and ordered findings and judgment for the plaintiff therein for the return of the property, $1 damages and costs. A stay of execution was granted for ten days.

There was no session of the Supreme Court yesterday. This date had been set for the hearing of motions, and as there were none, no business was transacted. The court will commence on the calendar today.

CONSUMPTION!

The following are prominent symptoms in the first stage, and wherever any of them exist a thorough examination should always be made, with a view to arrest the disease if shown to exist: There is usually a sense of weariness upon a little exercise, a disposition to remain passive and idle, despondency, often from no apparent cause, a peculiar sensitiveness to the effect of the and a breathlessness por merce to cold, and a breathlessness por moving a shight, hacking cough, with or without expectoration, excitability upon slight occasions, flying pains through the chest or back or under the shoulder blades. The symptoms are more noticeable toward or ouring the night; slight fever in the afternoon, cold feet and hands, or in many cases blue lividity of the lips and roots of the finger nails. Sometimes spitting of blood or slight streaks in the macous is the first indication of tubercular deposits or it may be more or less heat in the palms of the hands, or an afternoon flush on the cheeks. The slow and gradual inroads of this form of consumption leave the stomach and appetite undisturbed for a considerable time. Finally, however, heetic fever and night sweats supervene, preceded by diarrhoea. Then the loss of flesh and strength becomes rapid, the chest contracts, the features sharpen, the eye attains an unusual brill lance, and the palas stage a continued promption.

N the good old days we read about when a customer would go out shopping she would ask to see some calico. The proprietor or clerk would grab for a yard stick and point to a piece of goods and say to the customer if you like that piece I will take it out of the shelf for you; and the merchant would point away until the customer found something she thought would suit. This was old-time merchandising. Today it takes expert salespeople who know how to wait upon trade. They must know human nature, and have a good knowledge of the wares he sells. It takes brains to sell goods, and intelligence as well. There is no pointing, but a pulling down and showing goods in the most favorable light. It is not everyone who can in this day sell goods. It takes intelligent people and good judges of human nature; it takes expert buying as well. Our 50c line of all-wool dress goods is expert buying. PHYSICIAN, DR. WONG, for his superior medical abilities and curative powers.

It has long been customary among the Chinese people when one becomes sick and when repeated attempts to cure him have failed, and he is perhaps given up to die, if, after having been taken to an eminent physician, he be cured of his disease—the cured, too in addition to the regular fee for professional services rendered, makes the physician a present as a token of gratitude for his restoration to health and the prolongation of his life. This present consists usually of a broad plank, presenting much the appearance of a sign-board special content and bis friends.

It is not average English actuals, but full of meaning to the successful physician and bis friends.

It is not an uncommon thing to see a great number of these COMPI IMERICAN a cure of the disease which once afflicted the donor.

It is not an uncommon thing to see a great number of these COMPLIMENTARY DIPLOMAS adorning the office walls of Chinese physicians in their native country, and indeed a number of the most successful ones in this country are the happy possessors of a few of these high tokens of very subserior medical ability.

Business Meeting of the Republican Club.

Hall-Mes. Tom Thumb at the and Brevities,

A business meeting of the Harrison Republican Club was held yesterday evening at the City Hall. President J. A. Buchanan presided and Theo, Coleman officiated in his capacity as secretary. A number of members were present. The chief business of importance transacted was the appoint ment of a committee to arrange for a full turnout of club members and Republicans generally at the big rally in Los Angeles Saturday night. It is expected that there will be over 100 men in the parade from Pasadena, headed by the home band. Another committee was appointed to look after the registration of voters. Sufficient funds were subscribed to pay all campaign expenses up to date.

A DEMOCRATIC ROUND-UP.

A DEMOCRATIC ROUND-UF.

The Democrate held a mass-meeting at Williams's Hall yesterday evening that was fairly well attended, the audience containing a noticeable sprinkling of ladies.

A. R. Metcaife, Esq. presided, and W. C. Stuart acted as secretary. Others seated on the platform were the speakers of the evening, Judge Enoch Knight and J. Shirley Ward of Los Angeles, and the following county candidates: M. C. Marsh, Sheriff; W. B. Gullen, Clerk; J. de Barth Shorb, Treasurer; Gen. E. E. Hewitt, Tax Collector; F. B. Culver, Auditor; W. B. Scarborough, Public Administrator; Dr. Guirado, Coryner,
The se-retary read the following list of vice-prealents: W. U. Masters, R. M. Furlong, A. J. Wright, H. G. Bennett, Ed Kennedy, Allen Dodworth, Webster Wotkyns, Joe Simons, W. T. Grimes, J. B. Stoutenburgh, L. C. Winston, James Clarke, Walter Wotkyns, W. D. McGilvray, L. C. Torrance, A. O. Bristol, Charles Frost, C. F. Harris, J. Whitmore, S. Palmatier.

Mr. Metcaife, after a few brief introductory remarks, introduced Judge Knight as the first speaker of the evening. The Judge spoke in his usual entertaining style and was followed by Mr. Ward in an address that aroused considerable enthusiasm. The candidates were then introduced, most of whom had a few words to say regarding their candidatey, after which the meeting adjourned.

house to see Mrs. Gen. Tom Thumb and her talented company of Lilliputians. The little woman has a national reputation, and probably a majority of those present had seen her before, but the performance, nevertheless, possessed a certain novelty that made it enjoyable to all present, more particularly the young people.

Miss Georgia Mozart sang and danced welk, and Charles H. Clark proved himself to be an Irish comedian far above the average. Count Magriin his impersonation of the "Dutchess of Devonshire" was as funny as funny could be, while Logrenia, the Confarer, performed all sorts of wenderful tricks without any seeming effort. The Lilliputians in the musical extravaganza The Countess made a great hit, and the remainder of the programme was equally

The Muddle Caused by Goodwin's Disappearance—General News Notes.

The muddle into which Goodwin, the contractor, has managed to put his affairs regarding the two new school buildings is anything but pleasant to contemplate, when Goodwin skipped out, leaving the buildings about half finished, it was generally thought that it would amount to noth. when Goodwin skipped out, leaving the buildings about half finished, it was generally thought that it would amount to nothing, as his bondsmen would simply step in and finish the contract. In conversation with City Attorney W. A. Bell last night he expressed the opinion, however, that this could not be legally done, unless Goodwin is found, and signs an absolute release of the contract, giving the bondsmen power of attorney to sign his (Goodwin's) name. The city cannot pay out money on any finiperovement or public building in excess of $100, except by contract. If Goodwin cannot be found the city will simply have to advertise for new bids to finish the buildings. This will be a long dely to the half-finished buildings. It stands the Perry Lumber Company in hand, according to the opinion of Judge Bell, to find Goodwin, as they are already out about $10,000 in lumber in the new buildings. The bondsmen and their attorney are expected up today, and in consultation with the City Attorney will probably come to some definite conclusion in the matter.

Yesterday was another busy day at the pavilion, where a large number of men and women were at work preparing for and placing the exhibits and finishing the decorations. But all was in readiness for the evening opening, and a large number of vittors examined the various displays it up with numerous are and incandescent electric lights. The school of election was put in operation, having all the paraphernalia of a regular election under the Australian ballot saytem. The ballots used in this model booth are printed on white paper, perforated just as the regular ballots are to be for the election and are printed with the names of all the candidates precisely as the ballots to be used November 8. At the close of the evening exhibition the ballots will be counted and all erroneously marked tickets will be displayed the following day. Each voter visiting the exhibition will be permitted to vote once each day he attends. The scheme is a good one and each voter in the county can well afford to visit the pavilion for the purpose of learning how to vote. AT THE PAVILION.

The work of repairing and replanking the approach to the wharf will be completed at the shore end today. The work is being very thoroughly done, and is costing the wharf company a big lot of money, but when completed will be a lasting improvement. Some portions recently renewed have stood for twenty years. The work of replanking and renewing the piles under the main wharf will be continued until it is all in first-rate condition.

An inquest was hely vesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the undertaking rooms of Mr. Hiller, on State street, on the body of Ygnacio Recasina, a Spaniard, who died alone up near the Mission about noon yesterday. The old gentleman was reported very sick, and Coroner Ruiz sent a physician to see him, but he was dead before the physician reached him. He was an old man nearly 80 years of age and had neither family nor relatives in the city.

There was quite an amusing runaway in Santa Barbara yesterday forenoon. Two men were seated on a board balanced across a barrel, one got up suddenly, the other dropped out and the horses ranaway, fortunately damaging no one. There should be a penalty attached for these frequent runaways. If a man is careless of his own team he has no right to endanger the lives and property of others.

Politics are getting warm in Santa Barbara. Men now are found discussing the merits of the different parties more particularly than the candidates. Such, however, is the mixed state of things political this year that the best posted men ordinarily are completely at sea. It looks as though whatever defection from the ranks of former Republicans will be more than made good by Democratic voters who cannot indorse or support Cannon.

Regular Weekly Bulletin for Southern Following is the regular weekly weather and crop bulletin, issued by the Weather Bureau, for Southern California for the week ending October Orange county—Anaheim: The weather has been overcast and cloudy most of the week, developing into a light shower on the morning of the 6th. Indications pointing to early rains. Santa Ana: Weather pleasant. The work of gathering the English walnut and peanut crops progressing rapidly. Citrus fruits growing nicely and promising the largest yield ever grown here.

Ventura county-Hueneme: The show-

Nemiura county—Hueneme: The showers and continued foggy weather of the past week has retarded bean threshing.

Bardsdale: Showers on October 5 doing no special harm. Very loggy at night and cool and cloudy during the day for a week. Bean threshing about done. Late potatoes look well.

Los Angeles county—Pasadena: The hottest weather of the year struck us the past week, accompanied by a good deal of cloudiness and severe thunderstorms in the mountains. The last two days were much cooler and very foggy and accompanied mostly with light showers. Fruit drying is finished, except raisins. Showers delayed raisin drying. Highest temperature 60°, lowest 48°. The Paims: Weather still continues cloudy: threatening rain. A little fell on the night of the 6th. Duarte: The cool, cloudy and damp weather has been very bad for drying the fruit crop: with no bad weather for this week. lowest 48°. The Palms: Weather still continues cloudy: threatening rain. A little fell on the night of the 6th. Duarte: The cool, cloudy and damp weather has been very bad for drying the fruit crop: with no bad weather for this week, will about finish fruit drying. Maximum temperature 93, minimum temperature 57°, Lancaster: The rain on Wednesday night was a benefit to vegetation; all crops. The temperature was above the average and was also beneficial. Average amount of sunshine. Alfalfa is being cut for the seventh time this season.

sunshine. Alfalfa is being cut for the seventh time this season. San Diego county—San Diego: The past week was very warm and close and almost continually cloudy; bad for raisin making, though no loss has resulted so far. The temperature was above the normal and in that respect beneficial. But drying is retarded, which is very bad, as rain slikely to come at any time now. Light sprinkles on 4th and 5th did no injury.

I hear him out upon the porch,
His feet like mallets falling;
I hear him now behind the house,
Like a drunken Sioux squalling.

I hear him in the kitchen now. He's crawled upon the table; To bear annoy from that bad boy I do not think I'm able.

How he goes charging through the hall, A cnair he's dragging after; He gives such shrieks of reckless joy As fairly split the rafter.

I cannot hear upon the porch,
The clatter of his feet:
I cannot hear his shouts of joy,
Or laughter flowing sweet. I cannot hear him in the hall.

Republican Meeting Addressed by Uncle Billy Williams.

stration Ever Held in Orange County-A Masterly Exposition of the Princi-

SANTA ANA.

By far the largest political gun ever fired in Orange county was discharged by Hon. William Williams last evening in Neill's Hall with teling effect among the attending Democrats and People's party men, of whom there were many each. The people of Orange county never before listened to a more interesting speaker than Uncle Billy, and never before for plainty had the principles of the grand old Republican party been laid before them. As a political meeting it was the most enthusiastic and plainly instructive ever held in the county. The Democrats and People's party men could not hear the eloquent gentleman through the array of facts so vividly portrayed without realizing the necessity of protection of American industries and American labor. Before the speaker had finished his address the hall was filled to overflowing, the aisles and entrances filled by honest farmers and citizens, eager to hear the great orator good-naturedly take the bemocrats to task for their devious ways. Storm after storm of applause continued throughout the address and when he concluded three rousing cheers were given for Harrison, Reid and Bowers, three cheers for 'Uncle Billy,' three cheers for the ladies present, three cheers for the lectub and three cheers for the Billy come here there will not be Democrats enough left in the county to represent the party on the election boards. All will be Republicans.

PLEASANT RECEPTION. One of the most pleasant receptions ever held in Santa Ana was the one given the Rev. E. O. McIntier of the Methodist Episcopal Church at the elegant residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Huff, on First street, Monday evening. The attendance was large and the programme for the evening was particularly enjoyable. There were welcoming speeches, music and social conversation to entertain, delight and instruct until a late hour.

Apropos of the somewhat recent Democratic exigencies, the following is taken from the Orange Post, one of the most conservative and fair papers in the county. "Some of our exchanges are commenting upon the fact that the Democratic candidate for District Attorney is a corporation lawer. Two years ago the Republican candidate for Superior Judge lost a great many votes on that very score. The office of District Attorney should be kept free from entangling alliances with any special business interests. The Assessor, the Board of Supervisors and other county officers should have a legal adviser without prejudice or bias; the law of self-preservation demands this much in the interest of the great mass of the people." Dress Goods

Our Ousting-out Sale has been met with marked favor. When savings on sales can be effected to patrons they enter willingly into our plans, and so we do desire it. We place low rates on wares and with the desire for patrons to be benefited. In Dress Goods we have already sold more than the combined stores together. Every dressmaker can tell you ours is the largest assortment in town. The dressmakers are recommending our house, which goes to prove that we have the handsomest stock. Stylish goods make a stylish gown, and stylish gowns are a credit to the maker. Visit our department whether you want a suit at 333 or a fine imported robe at $15.00 to $40.00. We have them in abundance and at right prices for close buyers.
